Rain Forces Cancellation Of Parade

Tiny Teresa Troutman is Little Miss Pumpkin Show of 1960. She was chosen yesterday from a field of 93 candidates. The judging was in the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Teresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gladden Troutman, 155 E. Union St. She is a first grader at Corwin School. Attendants for the Little Miss are Ruth Ann Rocky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bozman, Ashville, and Barbara Lanman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lanman, Route 1, Williamsport.

Teresa was the smallest of the 93 first grade girls who participated in the contest. Her smile, a bright, twinkly grin, was a big factor, the judges said.

JUDGING the contest were Jean Hoover, Smokey and Tags, Columbus television personalities, and Sally Johnson, Columbus newspaper writer.

The Little Miss Pumpkin Show contest was moved to the Coliseum after rain forced cancellation of the annual parade, slated for 3 p. m.

Some 100 vehicles were ready to parade, along with several bands, but Pumpkin Show officials wisely called off the parade portion of the program. The 93 disappointed, but healthy, youngsters were taken to the Coliseum for the balance of the program.

About 500 spectators were on hand. They were entertained by the McConnellsville High School Band.

Teresa was sponsored by Neff Electric. She wore a green plaid dress, made by Mrs. Troutman. The tiny queen said she wasn't the least bit nervous during the process of judging which required her to parade before the judges and the 500 spectators.

Attendant Ruth Ann Rocky, 6, is a first grade student at Ashville School. She was named "Little Miss 4th of July" at the Ashville celebration this year. She was sponsored by Dick's Hardware, Ashville.

Barbara Lanman, 6, is a first grader at Williamsport. She was sponsored by Easterday's Welding.

The contest was sponsored by the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ike Scheduled For Frisco Talk

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—President Eisenhower, traveling under a non-political banner but doing some oblique missionary work for the Republicans, returns to the trial today in vote-rich California.

Refreshed by a day of golf and relaxation in this desert resort area, the President arranged to take off aboard his jet airliner at mid-morning for San Francisco.

Brighter Sky Opens Second Show Session

Pet Parade, Band Concerts Highlight Thursday Program

After a chilly, wet start, the 1960 Circleville Pumpkin Show opened its second session today with bright, blue skies.

The fair weather put more than roses in the cheeks of Pumpkin Show goers. It gave them a rosy feeling inside, too.

Today's program of the "great free show in the world" included the Pet Parade, Shrine and Band Parade at 8 p. m., old-fashioned costume contest; judo exhibition, jitterbug competition.

The main event, other than the parades, will be the two concerts of the U. S. Army Field Band, at 3 p. m. and 6 p. m. on the W. Main St. platform.

Following the parade tonight, the Ohio State AFROTC drill team will perform at Court and Main Sts.

WEATHER forecast for today and tomorrow makes Pumpkin Show officials proud they talked to the Weatherman after yesterday's soggy performance.

It is "Partly cloudy and colder this afternoon. Fair and much colder tonight with temperatures in the low 20s."

Friday's weather is to be partly cloudy and a little warmer. Tomorrow Ted Lewis will be in Circleville. This famous entertainer was born here and still plugs the old city in his act. He's the city's most famous son.

Also on the ticket for tomorrow is the Baby Parade, merchant industry parade and many other attractions.

Officials estimated that some 10-12,000 persons were on hand last night in spite of the rain.

The crowd was stacked about three deep all along the route of the parade and there were hundreds at the Court Main corner.

A new Miss Pumpkin Show began her year — long reign last night. She is Peggy Clark, 17, Miss Williamsport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark, Route 2.

She is attended by Pamela Mowery, Miss Monroe, and June Amann, Miss Circleville.

LITTLE Miss Pumpkin Show for 1960 is Teresa Troutman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gladden Troutman, 155 E. Union St. Her attendants are Barbara Lanman and Ruth Ann Rocky.

Judging of most exhibits took place yesterday or is scheduled for today. Judging of floats is to be at 7 p. m. today.

5 OSU Coeds Vie For Title of Queen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—One of five pretty coeds selected Wednesday by students will be Ohio State University's 1960 homecoming queen.

In campuswide balloting students selected Paula Grant of Cleveland, Jayne Haynes of Ash-tabula, Elaine Rigdon of West Union, Linda Radabaugh of Toledo, and Marlene Owens of Chicago. One will be queen, the others her court. The selection will be announced at the homecoming dance Friday night.

Facts, Faces, Figures

Punkin' Pickin's

Gene Fullen, radio personality, wonders just how big Circleville is. He was here last night to judge the Miss Pumpkin Show contest.

He said he pulled up at the corner of Court and Mound Sts. and asked a man there the location of the "Pickaway Arms". The man didn't know. Gene then took off hunting for it in his car. A half hour later he was back at the same spot, just two houses from the "Pickaway Arms" where he was to meet the other judges. He said he saw lots of town in that time.

JES FINE — That's what this duck seemed to be saying yesterday. It was duck weather, all right, for the 1960 Circleville Pumpkin Show. Here, enjoying the wet is a local Donald checking out a pumpkin.

The Lions Club again has a specialty — oyster sandwiches.

Kiwanians also are back at their favorite spot — with their favorite menu — pancakes.

John Enright, Gooding Amusement Co. manager, said he's back for the 95th show (this is actually the 54th). Gooding provided ride passes for Children's Home youngsters.

Miss Pumpkin Show won a season pass to the Circleville Swim Club and a hair styling by Mr. Torrence of the Neil House.

George Fischer, 892 Lincoln Drive, Brought in a pair of corn-stalks from the farm. They are 19 1/2 feet tall, and are at Easterday's Sohio Station. George claims they are the tallest in the United States.

JUDGING OF floats will be at 7 p. m. today on E. Main St., between Pickaway and Washington Sts. That's the official word from Roy Marshall, parade marshal.

Bill Cook, manager of the Pickaway County Fair, scurried around yesterday to make room for the judging of Little Miss and Miss Pumpkin Show contests in the Fairgrounds Coliseum. It's certainly nice to have the Coliseum available in times like these.

Some Pumpkin Show concessionaires liked the big Tuesday edition of The Herald so much they are buying them. They want to read up on this town they visit annually. There are still some papers available.

Punkin' Pickin's

Robert Colville, "Mr. Pumpkin Show", received a letter this morning from three local girls who are "homesick for the Pumpkin Show".

Judy Barnhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhill, 1008 N. Court St., Sally Montgomery, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Montgomery, 108 Seyfert Ave., and Judy Routzahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Routzahn, 946 Circle Drive, students at Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Va., "wish they were here."

The local girls asked the dietitian of the College to serve Pumpkin Pie for Saturday night's dinner. Request was granted the Pumpkin Show will be celebrated at Virginia Intermont College.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fritsch, Mr. Fritsch's sister, Miss Loretta Fritsch, and his mother Mrs. F. M. Fritsch, formerly from Circleville, are visiting the Pumpkin Show Mrs. F. M. Fritsch is a Pumpkin Show fan and is 86 years of age. They now live in Hamilton, O.

Echo Satellite No 2 was a point of interest to many spectators following the parade last night.

During a steady "drizzle" Court and Main spectators focused their attention on the model of Echo No. 1 on top of the Crist Building as the wind began to tear at the "My-lar" covering the huge rubber balloon.

Souvenirs of the Pumpkin Show were grasped out of the air by many persons as pieces of DuPont "My-lar" floated down to the streets.

After the wind had stripped the balloon of the "My-lar" the balloon burst at 9:20 p. m. as it hit the sharp edges of the building.

PEFTT! — That's the feeling of Bernadine Kathe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kathe, Walnut Creek Pike. She was one of hundreds of students who were dismissed from school for the Pumpkin Show, but couldn't really enjoy it because of the pumpkin juice which fell yesterday.

Peggy Clark Named Queen Of Sesqui Pumpkin Show

13 High School Girls Vie For Circleville Show Title

Pretty, pert Peggy Clark was chosen last night to reign over the 1960 Circleville Pumpkin Show.

She was named Miss Pumpkin Show from a field of 13 area high school girls. She replaces Vivian Gifford, last year's queen.

First attendant to Miss Clark is Pamela Mowery and second attendant is June Amann.

Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark, Route 2. She is a senior at Williamsport High School and represented Williamsport in the contest.

She is tallest of the 13 who competed in the Fairgrounds Coliseum after rain forced the judging inside. It was scheduled for the W. Main St. platform.

The Miss Pumpkin Show contestants paraded through the downtown streets, thanks to the weatherman holding off the drizzle for an hour. But, just as the judging was to start, so did the rain.

SPONSORS of the contest, the local chapter of Sigma Phi Gamma Sorority, decided to move to the Coliseum.

Judges, contestants, spectators all traveled to the Coliseum. About 800 were on hand for the contest.

Judges for the Miss Pumpkin Show competition were Mr. and Mrs. Torrence, of the Neil House, Columbus, and Gene Fullen, Columbus radio personality.

The new queen is 17, 5-7, 130 pounds, 35-25-37. She has brown hair and eyes, is active in high school, a cheerleader, band member and annual editor. She plans to enter Ohio State University for a career in secondary education.

Pamela Mowery, the first attendant, is 14, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mowery, Route 1, Williamsport. She represented Monroe High School where she is a freshman. She is 5-2 1/2, 105, 34-23-34.

June Amann, 16, is the daughter of Mrs. Goldie Amann, 426 E. Franklin St. She is a junior at Circleville High School, which she represented. June plans a modeling career. She is 5-3, 103 pounds, 34-23-35.

Other contestants were Judea Karshner, Miss Amanda-Clear-creek, Karen Roof, Miss Ashville; Loretta Davis, Miss Darby; Mary Hinton, Miss Jackson; Mary Large, Miss Kingston; Emily McDowell, Miss Laurelville; Verna McFadden, Miss Logan Elm; Mary Jane Cherry, Miss New Holland; Sandy Palmer, Miss Scioto, and Peggy Kemmerling, Miss Walnut.

Soviets Have Subs With A-Rockets

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union, which is credited with the world's biggest overseas fleet, now has atom-powered submarines armed with nuclear rockets.

Khrushchev spoke before 15,000 Muscovites packed into Luzhniki Stadium. It was his first speech since he returned last week from his desk-pounding visit to the U.N. General Assembly.

A summary of his speech distributed by Tass news agency in English gave a paragraph to his announcement of the nuclear, rocket-armed subs.

It said "he served this notice on American generals and admirals in connection with the report that the Pentagon decided to send submarines armed with missiles and nuclear weapons to the shores of the Soviet Union."

He said new Western proposals to the U.N. assembly show the Western powers are continuing to use disarmament talks to cover up an arms race policy.

"They are an ill omen for the future," Khrushchev said.

Khrushchev said the first stage of the 15th General Assembly was marked in the main "by the struggle of the new, the progressive, with the old, the outworn, which was impeding the growth and development of the new."

His attendance was not only worthwhile but essential he said.

Declaring an extraordinary session should be held next March and April, he said that if the heads of state and government agree in principle on a solution of the question of general and complete disarmament they could indicate the direction for additional work by a narrower panel.

He spoke of this panel as the "15-nation committee. The Soviet Union wants to expand the 10-nation East-West disarmament committee to 15 by the addition of five nations.

Colonial empires have fallen apart since World War II and now "their fragments are cracking up while the Communist countries have emerged as a powerful camp," Khrushchev said.

He declared the United States no longer looms great on the international scene and has lost its military superiority, "although their ruling circles are still under the delusion that they retain it."

He said the German problem must be solved and added that "apparently it should be solved in 1961 — without, however, saying precisely how."

Khrushchev described disarmament as "the hub of all vital problems of our time."

Sheriff Probes Crime Wave In Rural Areas

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department today investigated five house burglaries reported in this area yesterday and last night.

Deputies said the burglaries were committed in about a three-mile radius in the rural section south of Circleville.

William Boltenhouse, Route 1, Kingston, said the door of his home was forced. He reported $3 and a pair of gloves taken.

Woodrow Dumm, Route 1, Circleville, said about $55 was taken from his home. He also reported a 22 caliber gun missing.

GENE Kerns, Caldwell Road near Zane's Trail, said his home was entered. He reported a 22 caliber pistol and a piggy bank taken.

Delbert Holbrook, Morris-Salem Road, said about $30 from two banks were taken at his residence.

Dale McAfee of near Meade reported that his home also was entered. Loot was not determined.

Deputies Homer Adams, Dwight Radcliff and Homer Adams all worked on the burglary reports. The officers today reminded rural citizens to secure their homes before coming to the Pumpkin Show.

She is attended by Pamela Mowery, Miss Monroe, and June Amann, Miss Circleville.

LITTLE Miss Pumpkin Show for 1960 is Teresa Troutman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gladden Troutman, 155 E. Union St. Her attendants are Barbara Lanman and Ruth Ann Rocky.

Judging of most exhibits took place yesterday or is scheduled for today. Judging of floats is to be at 7 p. m. today.

5 OSU Coeds Vie For Title of Queen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—One of five pretty coeds selected Wednesday by students will be Ohio State University's 1960 homecoming queen.

In campuswide balloting students selected Paula Grant of Cleveland, Jayne Haynes of Ash- tabula, Elaine Rigdon of West Union, Linda Radabaugh of Toledo, and Marlene Owens of Chicago.

One will be queen, the others her court. The selection will be announced at the homecoming dance Friday night.

Facts, Faces, Figures

Punkin' Pickin's

Gene Fullen, radio personality, wonders just how big Circleville is. He was here last night to judge the Miss Pumpkin Show contest.

He said he pulled up at the corner of Court and Mound Sts. and asked a man there the location of the "Pickaway Arms". The man didn't know. Gene then took off hunting for it in his car. A half hour later he was back at the same spot, just two houses from the "Pickaway Arms" where he was to meet the other judges. He said he saw lots of town in that time.

JES FINE — That's what this duck seemed to be saying yesterday. It was duck weather, all right, for the 1960 Circleville Pumpkin Show. Here, enjoying the wet is a local Donald checking out a pumpkin.

The Lions Club again has a specialty — oyster sandwiches.

Kiwanians also are back at their favorite spot — with their favorite menu — pancakes.

John Enright, Gooding Amusement Co. manager, said he's back for the 95th show (this is actually the 54th). Gooding provided ride passes for Children's Home youngsters.

Miss Pumpkin Show won a season pass to the Circleville Swim Club and a hair styling by Mr. Torrence of the Neil House.

George Fischer, 892 Lincoln Drive, Brought in a pair of cornstalks from the farm. They are 19½ feet tall, and are at Easterday's Sohio Station. George claims they are the tallest in the United States.

JUDGING OF floats will be at 7 p. m. today on E. Main St., between Pickaway and Washington Sts. That's the official word from Roy Marshall, parade marshal.

Bill Cook, manager of the Pickaway County Fair, scurried around yesterday to make room for the judging of Little Miss and Miss Pumpkin Show contests in the Fairgrounds Coliseum. It's certainly nice to have the Coliseum available in times like those.

Some Pumpkin Show concessionaires liked the big Tuesday edition of The Herald so much they are buying them. They want to read up on this town they visit annually. There are still some papers available.

Robert Colville, "Mr. Pumpkin Show", received a letter this morning from three local girls who are "homesick for the Pumpkin Show".

Judy Barnhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhill, 1008 N. Court St., Sally Montgomery, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Montgomery, 108 Seyfert Ave., and Judy Routzahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Routzahn, 946 Circle Drive, students at Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Va., "wish they were here."

The local girls asked the dietician of the College to serve Pumpkin Pie for Saturday night's dinner. Request was granted the Pumpkin Show will be celebrated at Virginia Intermont College.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fritsch, Mr. Fritsch's sister, Miss Loretta Fritsch, and his mother Mrs. F. M. Fritsch, formerly from Circleville, are visiting the Pumpkin Show Mrs. F. M. Fritsch is a Pumpkin Show fan and is 86 years of age. They now live in Hamilton, O.

Echo Satellite No 2 was a point of interest to many spectators following the parade last night.

During a steady "drizzle" Court and Main spectators focused their attention on the model of Echo No. 1 on top of the Crist Building as the wind began to tear at the "My-lar" covering the huge rubber balloon.

Souvenirs of the Pumpkin Show were grasped out of the air by many persons as pieces of DuPont "My-lar" floated down to the streets.

After the wind had stripped the balloon of the "My-lar" the balloon burst at 9:20 p. m. as it hit the sharp edges of the building.

PFFT! — That's the feeling of Bernadine Kathe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kathe, Walnut Creek Pike. She was one of hundreds of students who were dismissed from school for the Pumpkin Show, but couldn't really enjoy it because of the pumpkin juice which fell yesterday.

Soviets Have Subs With A-Rockets

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union, which is credited with the worlds biggest undersea fleet, now has atom-powered submarines armed with nuclear rockets.

Khrushchev spoke before 15,000 Muscovites packed into Luzhniki Stadium. It was his first speech since he returned last week from "is desk-pounding visit to the U. N. General Assembly."

A summary of his speech distributed by Tass news agency in English gave a paragraph to his announcement of the nuclear, rocket-armed subs.

It said "he served this notice on American generals and admirals in connection with the report that the Pentagon decided to send submarines armed with missiles and nuclear weapons to the shores of the Soviet Union."

He said new Western proposals to the U. N. assembly show the Western powers are continuing to use disarmament talks to cover up an arms race policy.

"They are an ill omen for the future, Khrushchev said.

Khrushchev said the first stage of the 15th General Assembly was marked in the main "by the struggle of the new, the progressive, with the old, the outworn, which was impeding the growth and development of the new."

His attendance was not only worthwhile but essential he said. Declaring an extraordinary session should be held next March and April, he said that if the heads of state and government agree in principle on a solution of the question of general and complete disarmament they could indicate the direction for additional work by a narrower panel.

He spoke of this panel as the "15-nation committee. The Soviet Union wants to expand the 10-nation East-West disarmament committee to 15 by the addition of five nations.

Colonial empires have fallen apart since World War II and now "their fragments are cracking up while the Communist countries have emerged as a powerful camp, Khrushchev said.

He declared the United States no longer looms great on the international scene and has lost its military superiority, "although their ruling circles are still under the delusion that they retain it.

He said the German problem must be solved and added that "apparently it should be solved in 1961 — without, however, saying precisely how.

Khrushchev described disarmament as "the hub of all vital problems of our time.

Sheriff Probes Crime Wave In Rural Areas

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department today investigated five house burglaries reported in this area yesterday and last night.

Deputies said the burglaries were committed in about a three-mile radius in the rural section south of Circleville.

William Boltenhouse, Route 1, Kingston, said the door of his home was forced. He reported $3 and a pair of gloves taken.

Woodrow Dumm, Route 1, Circleville, said about $55 was taken from his home. He also reported a 22 caliber gun missing.

GENE Kerns, Caldwell Road near Zane's Trail, said his home was entered. He reported a 22 caliber pistol and a piggy bank taken.

Delbert Holbrook, Morris-Salem Road, said about $30 from two banks were taken at his residence. Dale McAfee of near Meade reported that his home also was entered. Loot was not determined.

Deputies Homer Adams, Dwight Radcliff and Homer Adams all worked on the burglary reports. The officers today reminded rural citizens to secure their homes before coming to the Pumpkin Show.

Punkin' . . .

almost shook the rafters in the Coliseum yesterday.

A few Little Miss Pumpkins contestants tried to take a short cut in back of the judges instead of parading before them.

"But Mr. Shea, how can I show my teeth, I don't have any," replied a little contestant when Mr. Shea asked them to smile and show their teeth for the judges.

I wonder who takes it harder, the contestants or their parents?

A few little girls had tears when eliminated but most acted as if it would be a relief to get those party clothes off and into blue-jeans.

The mothers most have really worked yesterday because they all showed up with curls even though the weather wasn't co-operative.

Announcer Stan Stevens did his usual good job describing the Miss Pumpkin Show Parade last night from high up on the information booth at Court and Main Sts. With an assist from Vern Weiler he accurately introduced units marching two ways — those turning west onto Main St. and those swinging back to move onto E. Main St.

Police Chief Robert Temple said everything in the downtown area went off without a hitch yesterday, outside of the rain.

The poor weatherman, taking a verbal beating yesterday, did come through with a slight act of kindness last night. His predicted rain held off long enough for the parade. Light precipitation started falling just as the last parade unit passed the information booth to turn onto E. Main St.

George Green and Alva Shasteen, two retired Circleville Policemen, will be honored tonight. Both will ride in the parade as special guests of the police department.

Circleville Patrolmen received many compliments yesterday on their neat appearance. Brass was shined to perfection and creased in jackets and trousers were razor sharp.

Hats off to the charming Miss

Punkin' . . .

almost shook the rafters in the Coliseum yesterday.

A few Little Miss Pumpkins contestants tried to take a short cut in back of the judges instead of parading before them.

"But Mr. Shea, how can I show my teeth, I don't have any," replied a little contestant when Mr. Shea asked them to smile and show their teeth for the judges.

I wonder who takes it harder, the contestants or their parents?

A few little girls had teds where eliminated but most acted as if it would be a relief to get those party clothes off and into blue-jeans.

The mothers most have really worked yesterday because they all showed up with curls even though the weather wasn't co-operative.

Announcer Stan Stevens did his usual good job describing the Miss Pumpkin Show Parade last night from high up on the information booth at Court and Main Sts. With an assist from Vern Weiler he accurately introduced units marching two ways — those turning west onto Main St. and those swinging back to move onto E. Main St.

Police Chief Robert Temple said everything in the downtown area went off without a hitch yesterday, outside of the rain.

The poor weatherman, taking a verbal beating yesterday, did come through with a slight act of kindness last night. His predicted rain held off long enough for the parade. Light precipitation started falling just as the last parade unit passed the information booth to turn onto E. Main St.

George Green and Alva Shasteen, two retired Circleville Policemen, will be honored tonight. Both will ride in the parade as special guests of the police department.

Circleville Patrolmen received many compliments yesterday on their neat appearance. Brass was shined to perfection and creased in jackets and trousers were razor sharp.

Hats off to the charming Miss

PX Sells Foreign Goods

Stepped up scrutiny of Defense Department purchases by persons who have found reason to be suspicious of the practice of the largest single agency of government anywhere in the world buying most of its materials on negotiated contracts—instead of through competitive bidding—has brought to light a peculiar policy regarding purchases for the sprawling Post Exchange Store system.

Last year, purchases made by servicemen and their families through special retail outlets maintained on military installations totaled $895 million. Because of special discounts and tax exclusions, many of the articles on sale at these outlets are priced lower than in local stores. Retailers in areas adjacent to military posts have long condemned the PX system as providing government - subsidized articles of clothing, gifts and toilet supplies in unfair competition to legitimate dealers.

The retailers are about to be joined by American manufacturers in their complaints against Army and Air Force stores. Germany, Japan and Britain now are supplying more of the items sold in military stores than are factories in this country. Of $681 million spent last year for goods sold in Pxs, only $224 million went for purchases in the United States.

Military buyers for overseas stores are to blame for most of the purchases of foreign goods. Legislation in the form of the

Buy American Act was passed to prevent a significant part of the Defense Budget from benefiting foreign industries, but the Defense Department does not consider its overseas activities as coming under the requirements of the act. Even in the United States, Post Exchanges are permitted to sell foreign - made items in preference to American goods if a savings of at least 6 per cent can be realized on the cost.

Almost $500 million contributed by the American taxpayers as part of the $40 billion Defense budget has been diverted to economies competing with the United States in the Post Exchange program alone. More frequently, other agencies of government are turning to overseas suppliers for goods abundantly available here.

It should not require a great deal of imagination to foresee the dangers not only to the domestic economy, but to the ability of American industry to meet military requirements as well, inherent in a policy of government purchases which does not give the American producer at least a 50-50 chance of competing.

Most all of the things we get for nothing, cost more than they are worth.

What Did Khrush Win at U.N.? By George Sokolsky

To Khrushchev, one gladly says, "Good bye, do vidanie." He came; he saw; but he did not conquer. Not a single measure that he proposed passed the General Assembly of the United Nations.

He made his strongest stand on the admission of Red China to the United Nations. Had he been able to win the new African countries to his program, Red China would have been admitted. Khrushchev returns to Moscow empty-handed. This is a serious matter for any politician.

What clearly was bothering Khrushchev was first, that no dramatic explosion occurred to startle the world at the moment of Khrushchev's arrival in New York. There was no Sputnik; no man was shot to the moon or to Mars. Somebody let Khrushchev down. Or perhaps, after the U-2 completed the photographing of Russian installations, there is no further need to try to scare us.

President Eisenhower's conduct bothered Khrushchev no end. So far as the Government of the United States is concerned, no one knew that Khrushchev was here. Of course, the New York City police protected him excessively but beyond that there was nothing. He had not come to the United States; he had come to the United Nations.

The President correctly had nothing to say to the man who wants to bury us. He left that to Cyrus Eaton and David Susskind. No American official greeted him at any point.

Khrushchev, the head of state, the diplomat had difficulty keeping the news; Khrushchev, the clown, had difficulty keeping in the news; Khrushchev, the clown, had no difficulty at all. He spoke from a balcony like Mussolini used to do in Rome. He took a walk on the sidewalk of Park Avenue like Harry Truman, except that Harry Truman needs no police escort. He thumped the tables in the United Nations like a small boy in a tantrum, but after a while, nobody noted that except in disgust. He went on the Susskind program and lied without sense.

Surely, it was a wasted effort. Khrushchev had brought together the heads of many states to make a show of his power. It was the largest assemblage of rulers in history. But they made little impression because Khrushchev overwheeled everybody.

He stole the stage. Usually

Nehru of India gets top billing but Nehru was no match for Khrushchev in stealing the center of the stage. The whole business was an exercise in futility.

However, it did disclose one fact — a tremendously significant fact. Soviet Russia now seeks to destroy the United Nations and will do it by whatever means are available. In this session, Khrushchev failed but he disclosed his hand. Stalin held fast to the doctrine that the small nations amounted to nothing. He respected but disliked the United States. He regarded Great Britain as decadent and France and Germany as no longer significant.

Khrushchev makes a play for the small nations only because in such a body as the United Nations, they have the votes. Apart from that, he is contemptuous of them. Had he succeeded in killing off the United Nations, he would not be forced to submit to the blackmail which both Soviet Russia and the United States may be forced to accept during the next years.

The African countries, in particular, have an enormous advantage in that they have votes to offer to the highest bidder. Had Khrushchev succeeded in killing off the United Nations, the African countries would have no role to play at all. And even such a country as India, despite Nehru and Krishna Menon, would amount to very little in world affairs and would be forced to turn to either the United States for defense against the Communist countries or to Soviet Russia for protection against Red China.

As it is, Khrushchev will have to explain his failure to his own President and to the Red Chinese with whom he is feuding. Mao Tse-tung suspects Khrushchev of hankering for the non - socialist high standard of living of the West.

Mao does not need an improvement in the lot of his people. He feels that he requires a chauvinistic expansion of territory to the Chien Lung line which was the widest expanse of Chinese dynasty. (The Mongols are not Chinese but conquerors of China.) Such an expansion would include not only India but Russian territory.

As Khrushchev must go home empty - handed, what can his explanation be?

LAFF-A-DAY

"I don't remember this hill."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

WES LAWRENCE, ace Cleveland columnist, received this query from a constant reader: "Who do you consider the best qualified man for the next president of the United States?" Lawrence, no fool he, cautiously replied, "My opinion, dear reader, would be purely academic, for my wife long ago made me promise never to enter politics."

Kenyon Scudder, expert on crime prevention, thinks that TV underworld dramas are not just the thing the kiddies should see as their bedtime approaches. He even wrote a little poem to release his pent-up indignation:

"Sing a song of TV
For the little ones:
Four and twenty jailbirds
Packing Tommy-guns.
When the scene is finished
The blood is ankle deep.
Now isn't that a pretty dish
To send the kids to sleep?"

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The statements of Henry Cabot Lodge, No. 2 man on the Republican presidential ticket, are getting him personal attention over and beyond the usual requirements of the campaign.

For instance: what he has had to say about a Negro in the Cabinet and about the legality of the U2 spy-plane case. He was back on the Cabinet-Negro theme again Tuesday.

On Oct. 12 in Harlem he said there should be a Negro in the Cabinet and added it is "part of our program if Vice President Richard M. Nixon wins the presidency and 'it is offered as a pledge."

This was hardly the kind of remark which would exhilarate white Southerners at a time when Nixon was extremely anxious to induce a large chunk of the Democratic South to vote Republican.

The next day Nixon toned down his running mates statement by saying he would choose a Cabinet based on ability and not on race or creed. And Lodge, speaking that next day in the South, said Cabinet jobs should go to capable people, regardless of race.

He said picking a Cabinet was something for the president to handle but that he himself would favor a Negro in the Cabinet. Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, said Lodge was talking "racism in reverse."

Last Sunday Nixon and Lodge met in Connecticut but the New York Times said they failed to eliminate entirely "their policy differences over appointment of a Negro to the Cabinet."

(Lodge said the article in the Times had been a work of imagination.)

Tuesday Lodge returned to the subject and predicted that a Negro would be appointed to the Cabinet if Nixon wins.

He made this statement in Albany, N.Y., just as Nixon was in the Deep South, at Miami, making a campaign speech. Nixon said when asked about Lodge's latest statement: "I have made no commitments . . . If elected, I will appoint the best man."

Lodge got into an argument with Kennedy Oct. 8 about a statement made by Lodge in a TV interview Sept. 18.

Lodge was asked: "Relative to the Soviet Union, do you think we have as much prestige and as much influence in the world as we had eight years ago?"

The transcript of the program quoted Lodge as saying in reply: "Let me just point to the U2 case. Now you might say that if there was a case where we didn't have the law on our side, it was the U2 case."

The U2 plane was forced down over Russia last May. Kennedy remembered that Lodge TV interview of Sept. 18. And in his Oct. 7 TV debate with Nixon, Kennedy quoted Lodge as conceding that this country did not have the law on its side in sending the plane over the Soviet Union.

But Lodge said Kennedy "completely misstated my position on the U2 case. He first said it was a questioner on the TV show who suggested the United States did not have the law on its side, and that he was merely repeating the words of the questioner."

Kennedy, contending he had quoted Lodge accurately, produced the question and answer from the transcript.

Lodge said the "you referred to his interrogator when he said 'now you might say that if ever there was a case where we didn't have the law on our side it was the U2 case.'"

He contended he never had expressed a personal opinion on the legality of the U2 flights.

PX Sells Foreign Goods

Stepped up scrutiny of Defense Department purchases by persons who have found reason to be suspicious of the practice of the largest single agency of government anywhere in the world buying most of its materials on negotiated contracts—instead of through competitive bidding—has brought to light a peculiar policy regarding purchases for the sprawling Post Exchange Store system.

Last year, purchases made by servicemen and their families through special retail outlets maintained on military installations totaled $895 million. Because of special discounts and tax exclusions, many of the articles on sale at these outlets are priced lower than in local stores. Retailers in areas adjacent to military posts have long condemned the PX system as providing government-subsidized articles of clothing, gifts and toilet supplies in unfair competition to legitimate dealers.

The retailers are about to be joined by American manufacturers in their complaints against Army and Air Force stores. Germany, Japan and Britain now are supplying more of the items sold in military stores than are factories in this country. Of $681 million spent last year for goods sold in PXs, only $224 million went for purchases in the United States.

Military buyers for overseas stores are to blame for most of the purchases of foreign goods. Legislation in the form of the

Buy American Act was passed to prevent a significant part of the Defense Budget from benefiting foreign industries, but the Defense Department does not consider its overseas activities as coming under the requirements of the act. Even in the United States, Post Exchanges are permitted to sell foreign-made items in preference to American goods if a savings of at least 6 per cent can be realized on the cost.

Almost $500 million contributed by the American taxpayers as part of the $40 billion Defense budget has been diverted to economies competing with the United States in the Post Exchange program alone. More frequently, other agencies of government are turning to overseas suppliers for goods abundantly available here.

It should not require a great deal of imagination to foresee the dangers not only to the domestic economy, but to the ability of American industry to meet military requirements as well, inherent in a policy of government purchases which does not give the American producer at least a 50-50 chance of competing.

Most all of the things we get for nothing, cost more than they are worth.

What Did Khrush Win at U.N.?

By George Sokolsky

To Khrushchev, one gladly says, "Good-bye, dovidanie." He came; he saw; but he did not conquer. Not a single measure that he proposed passed the General Assembly of the United Nations.

He made his strongest stand on the admission of Red China to the United Nations. Had he been able to win the new African countries to his program, Red China would have been admitted. Khrushchev returns to Moscow empty-handed. This is a serious matter for any politician.

What clearly was bothering Khrushchev was first, that no dramatic explosion occurred to startle the world at the moment of Khrushchev's arrival in New York. There was no Sputnik; no man was shot to the moon or to Mars. Somebody let Khrushchev down. Or perhaps, after the U-2 completed the photographing of Russian installations, there is no further need to try to scare us.

President Eisenhower's conduct bothered Khrushchev no end. So far as the Government of the United States is concerned, no one knew that Khrushchev was here. Of course, the New York City police protected him excessively but beyond that there was nothing. He had not come to the United States; he had come to the United Nations.

The President correctly had nothing to say to the man who wants to bury us. He left that to Cyrus Eaton and David Susskind. No American official greeted him at any point.

Khrushchev, the head of state, the diplomat had difficulty keeping the news; Khrushchev, the clown, had difficulty keeping in the news; Khrushchev, the clown, had no difficulty at all. He spoke from a balcony like Mussolini used to do in Rome. He took a walk on the sidewalk of Park Avenue like Harry Truman, except that Harry Truman needs no police escort. He thumped the tables in the United Nations like a small boy in a tantrum, but after a while, nobody noted that except in disgust. He went on the Susskind program and lied without sense.

Surely, it was a wasted effort. Khrushchev had brought together the heads of many states to make a show of his power. It was the largest assemblage of rulers in history. But they made little impression because Khrushchev overwheeled everybody.

He stole the stage. Usually

Nehru of India gets top billing but Nehru was no match for Khrushchev in stealing the center of the stage. The whole business was an exercise in futility.

However, it did disclose one fact—a tremendously significant fact. Soviet Russia now seeks to destroy the United Nations and will do it by whatever means are available. In this session, Khrushchev failed but he disclosed his hand. Stalin held fast to the doctrine that the small nations amounted to nothing. He respected but disliked the United States. He regarded Great Britain as decadent and France and Germany as no longer significant.

Khrushchev makes a play for the small nations only because in such a body as the United Nations, they have the votes. Apart from that, he is contemptuous of them. Had he succeeded in killing off the United Nations, he would not be forced to submit to the black-mail which both Soviet Russia and the United States may be forced to accept during the next years.

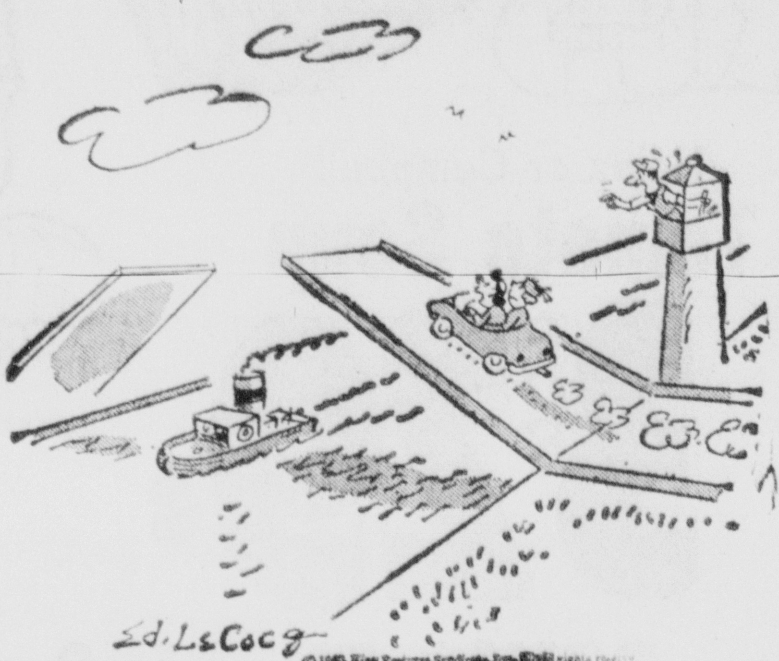

The African countries, in particular, have an enormous advantage in that they have votes to offer to the highest bidder. Had Khrushchev succeeded in killing off the United Nations, the African countries would have no role to play at all. And even such a country as India, despite Nehru and Krishna Menon, would amount to very little in world affairs and would be forced to turn to either the United States for defense against the Communist countries or to Soviet Russia for protection against Red China.

As it is, Khrushchev will have to explain his failure to his own President and to the Red Chinese with whom he is feuding. Mao Tse-tung suspects Khrushchev of hankering for the non-socialistic high standard of living of the West.

Mao does not need an improvement in the lot of his people. He feels that he requires a chuvistic expansion of territory to the Chien Lung line which was the widest expanse of Chinese dynasty. (The Mongols are not Chinese but conquerors of China.) Such an expansion would include not only India but Russian territory.

As Khrushchev must go home empty-handed, what can his explanation be?

WES LAWRENCE, ace Cleveland columnist, received this query from a constant reader: "Who do you consider the best qualified man for the next president of the United States?" WASHINGTON (AP)—The statements of Henry Cabot Lodge, No. 2 man on the Republican presidential ticket, are getting him personal attention over and beyond the usual requirements of the campaign.

For instance: what he has had to say about a Negro in the Cabinet and about the legality of the U2 spy-plane case. He was back on the Cabinet-Negro theme again Tuesday.

On Oct. 12 in Harlem he said there should be a Negro in the Cabinet and added it is "part of our program if Vice President Richard M. Nixon wins the presidency and 'it is offered as a pledge."

This was hardly the kind of remark which would exhilarate white Southerners at a time when Nixon was extremely anxious to induce a large chunk of the Democratic South to vote Republican.

The next day Nixon toned down his running mates statement by saying he would choose a Cabinet based on ability and not on race or creed. And Lodge, speaking that next day in the South, said Cabinet jobs should go to capable people, regardless of race.

He said picking a Cabinet was something for the president to handle but that he himself would favor a Negro in the Cabinet. Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, said Lodge was talking "racism in reverse."

Last Sunday Nixon and Lodge met in Connecticut but the New York Times said they failed to eliminate entirely "their policy differences over appointment of a Negro to the Cabinet."

(Lodge said the article in the Times had been a work of imagination.)

Tuesday Lodge returned to the subject and predicted that a Negro would be appointed to the Cabinet if Nixon wins.

He made this statement in Albany, N.Y., just as Nixon was in the Deep South, at Miami, making a campaign speech. Nixon said when asked about Lodge's latest statement: "I have made no commitments... If elected, I will appoint the best man."

Lodge got into an argument with Kennedy Oct. 8 about a statement made by Lodge in a TV interview Sept. 18.

Lodge was asked: "Relative to the Soviet Union, do you think we have as much prestige and as much influence in the world as we had eight years ago?"

The transcript of the program quoted Lodge as saying in reply: "Let me just point to the U2 case. Now you might say that if there was a case where we didn't have the law on our side, it was the U2 case."

The U2 plane was forced down over Russia last May. Kennedy remembered that Lodge TV interview of Sept. 18. And in his Oct. 7 TV debate with Nixon, Kennedy quoted Lodge as conceding that this country did not have the law on its side in sending the plane over the Soviet Union.

But Lodge said Kennedy "completely misstated my position on the U2 case. He first said it was a questioner on the TV show who suggested the United States did not have the law on its side, and that he was merely repeating the words of the questioner."

Kennedy, contending he had quoted Lodge accurately, produced the question and answer from the transcript.

Lodge said the "you referred to his interrogator when he said 'now you might say that if there was a case where we didn't have the law on our side it was the U2 case.'"

He contended he never had expressed a personal opinion on the legality of the U2 flights.

Governor's Panel on Aging Presents Recommendations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recommendations by the governor's Commission on Aging deal largely with health care, housing employment and recreation for the aged.

The commission submitted to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle a 32-page report on recommendations compiled from several county surveys and the governor's conference on aging held last month. The recommendations will be forwarded to the White House Conference of Aging in Washington next January.

Health recommendations include:

- Improve standards of health, within the limits of general tax funds available.

- Encourage private health carriers to provide nursing home, out-patient and home care services for mental patients in private hospitals.

- Study the feasibility of building governmental public nursing homes for the indigent aged.

- Ask the legislature for appropriations to purchase nursing home care for old age pensioners.

Electric Shock Kills Construction Workman

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Willie Gibbons, 24, a Cleveland construction worker, was killed by electric shock Wednesday near Parkman. A cable he held in his hand touched an overhead electric line. The cable was connected to the boom of a crane and hit the wire when Gibbons picked it up.

Urge the medical profession to take the lead in providing better distribution of doctors in rural areas.

In the field of employment, the commission recommended:

- Requests for the legislature and Congress for action to prevent employment discrimination because of age.

- Studies looking towards elimination of mandatory job retirement at any specific age.

- Expansion of employment counseling and training programs for older workers.

Housing recommendations include:

- Action to encourage construction of private homes and apartments priced and designed for older occupants.

- Provision for additional low-rent public housing designed for the aged.

- Elimination of the present state-imposed $3,000 annual income ceiling for low-rent housing eligibility and substitution of community-determined eligibility.

- Make more boarding, nursing and foster homes available for the aged.

The recommendations called for community recreation programs on a neighborhood basis, more hotel facilities for oldsters and creation of a senior camping program.

Collegiate Rolls Continue To Bulge

CINCINNATI (AP)—An early fall study of nearly two-thirds of American colleges and universities shows just what schoolmen expected—more students than ever before, especially freshmen.

Dr. Garland G. Parker, University of Cincinnati registrar, said the study indicated well over two million full-time students this fall, compared with the 1,973,948 noted in 1959 by 995 schools.

He said full-time and part-time enrollment together will probably be around 2.9 million when final totals are available. Last year, the total was 2,811,704.

Dr. Parker said, "While the upward student surge this fall appears larger than many had expected, the big bulge in collegiate enrollment will arise a few years hence when the present elementary school pupils become college students."

He said large public institutions showed strong increases while the rest either had more students or the same as last year.

Seventy per cent of all the schools reported increases in freshman students. Among the arts and sciences colleges, however, 30 per cent noted either no change or falling freshman enrollment.

Dr. Parker said factors helping an enrollment decline on arts and science school campuses include "Decisions to stabilize enrollments, limitations on housing and academic facilities and pressure of higher tuition charges."

He said enrollment of full-time students increased this fall in most teachers colleges and engineering colleges.

Dr. Parker continued the college population surveys started in 1919 by Dr. Raymond Walters, Cincinnati president emeritus, who has been ill.

A famous Civil War commander of the Army of the Potomac, Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, popularized the whiskers known as "sideburns"—properly called "burnsides".

Jailbreak Witness Tells of Threats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James Welch says his life was threatened after he told the FBI about a planned breakout by several prisoners in City Prison.

Testifying in the trial of Daniel J. Koenig, 27, of Miami, Fla., and Charles F. Waughman, 26, of Pittsburgh, Tuesday Welch said Koenig threatened him after the escape plot was squelched.

Welch is awaiting sentence on a felony charge.

Governor's Panel on Aging Presents Recommendations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recommendations by the governor's Commission on Aging deal largely with health care, housing employment and recreation for the aged.

The commission submitted to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle a 32-page report on recommendations compiled from several county surveys and the governor's conference on aging held last month. The recommendations will be forwarded to the White House Conference of Aging in Washington next January.

Health recommendations include: Improve standards of health, within the limits of general tax funds available.

Encourage private health carriers to provide nursing home, out-patient and home care services for mental patients in private hospitals.

Study the feasibility of building governmental public nursing homes for the indigent aged.

Ask the legislature for appropriations to purchase nursing home care for old age pensioners.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Crying Over Spilt Milk

DEAR ABBY: I've gotten myself into a jam and must admit I was stupid. I got a long-distance call from my husband's daughter by a previous marriage. He hadn't heard from her in 24 years. I was divorced from the girl's mother (who had since died) when this daughter was two. She said she wanted to see her father. I gave her the brush-off, Abby.

My husband is furious with me and I don't blame him. I don't know her address or phone number (if she has one). I only know her name and the city she called from. You must have a pretty low opinion of me but that's beside the point. How can I locate her?

STUPID
DEAR STUPID: Call the public library in the city from which the call came and ask them to look for her name in the city directory. If she lives there, they'll be able to locate her whether she has a telephone or not.

DEAR ABBY: Your ignorance is showing! Don't you know that millions of people are suffering from glandular disorders which causes them to gain weight on practically no calories? This condition is incurable and those af-

Lion's Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Lion's Auxiliary met at 8 p. m. Monday, at the home of Mrs. Milton Greist, 420 S. Court St.

Mrs. Greist, president, presided at the meeting and it was opened with the Allegiance to the Flag. A sunshine offering was collected, followed by the welcoming of a new member, Norma Miller.

Clarence Radcliff, district governor, reported that the local Lion's Club is to be host of the convention to be held at the Southern Hotel, Columbus, in April, 1961. The Auxiliary will be in charge of the district hospitality room and the ladies' entertainment.

Plans were discussed for a Christmas Party and names were drawn for a gift exchange. A travelling prize was won by Mary Radcliff and the meeting was adjourned.

Local Art League Members Hear Talk on Water Colors

Dick Kersell, head of Lazarus Art department, Columbus, was guest speaker at the Circleville Art League session recently at the home of Mrs. Loy Schiff, Lockbourne.

Mr. Kersell spoke on water colors. He stated that water color is the most challenging medium and that the artist must have a trained and disciplined hand to be able to handle it effectively.

He said that certain moods and incidents can be captured quickly in water color that would be lost if done any other way.

All artists handle water colors in their own particular manner which reflects the personality of the artist, he stated.

Mr. Kersell displayed examples which showed techniques used by different artists.

He closed by saying that although most of the paintings done by the old masters that we see today were painted in oil, the preliminary sketches were done in water color.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Schiff, vice-president, in absence of the president.

A discussion was held concerning the Sesquicentennial Art exhibit which is currently showing at the Court House lobby. It was announced that pictures should be picked up at 2 p. m. Sunday.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Crying Over Spilt Milk

DEAR ABBY: I've gotten myself into a jam and must admit I was stupid. I got a long-distance call from my husband's daughter by a previous marriage. He hadn't heard from her in 27 years. I was divorced from the girl's mother (who had since died) when this daughter was two. She said she wanted to see her father. I gave her the brush-off, Abby.

My husband is furious with me and I don't blame him. I don't know her address or phone number (if she has one). I only know her name and the city she called from. You must have a pretty low opinion of me but that's beside the point. How can I locate her?

STUPID
DEAR STUPID: Call the public library in the city from which the call came and ask them to look for her name in the city directory. If she lives there, they'll be able to locate her whether she has a telephone or not.

DEAR ABBY: Your ignorance is showing! Don't you know that millions of people are suffering from glandular disorders which causes them to gain weight on practically no calories? This condition is incurable and those afflicted should not be blamed or shamed because they are fat. I happen to be one of those unfortunate people and, on behalf of myself and others in the same boat, I wish you would kindly lay off!

"GOOT GEEZUKT"
DEAR "GOOT": According to an authority at a world-famous medical clinic, approximately one case in a hundred involving obesity is due to "glandular disorders. And with proper diet and treatment the condition IS controllable.

DEAR ABBY: I have a grandson 17 years of age and have been buying cars for him so he can be happy with other boys and girls his age. He has gone through four cars in 14 months teaching green kids how to drive.

I got him a 58 Chevrolet 16 days ago and now he has tore up the transmission and blowed out two tires. He don't care what happens to cars as long as it don't cost him nothing.

I love Junior but I don't want him doing me this way. Please tell me what to do now that I spoiled him so bad. He will soon have me begging bread.

GRANDMA
DEAR GRANDMA: Put the brakes on all that giving. If Junior wants a car — let him work for it. Then he'll appreciate it more and this better car will be it. If you love him, you'll follow my advice.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LINDA:
He is a graduate from the "kiss-and-tell school of romance (magnum cum lotta), so if you sign up for his course, don't expect to be the exception in his collection.

FOR THE BIKE BRIDE—Model Margaret Holmes, 23, displays the bridal gown for the beatnik set at a teenage bridal show in London. Under the gown is a pair of blue motorcycle pants, handy for brides intending to take off on an open-air type honeymoon trip. A 19-year-old designed the set.

AP Survey Shows GOP Gains In South May Be Slipping

Editor's Note—Back from a series of campaign tours, Jack Bell, AP political writer, reports on one phase of the campaign strategy in the following article.

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Party claims of a Democratic resurgence in the South may pose some new threats to Vice President Richard M. Nixon's basic campaign strategy.

The Republican presidential nominee has been working hard to rack up half a dozen Southern and border states to offset the admitted advantage of his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, in New England.

Nixon's strategists have hoped to link these states with those of the Midwestern farm area as a foundation from which he could win the presidency by at least splitting with his opponent the electoral votes of the industrial states—including New York and California.

But the Southern flank of this base has come under heavy Democratic attack in the last couple of weeks. There is some evidence that the flank is weakening somewhat.

The most recent Associated Press survey showed Kentucky changing from the Nixon column to a doubtful status, and Louisiana shifting from doubtful to Kennedy. The survey indicated Nixon leads in Florida, South Carolina and Virginia, which have a total of 30 electoral votes.

Besides Kentucky, the doubtful class includes Texas, with 24 electoral votes, Tennessee with 11, North Carolina with 14, Mississippi with 8 and Missouri with 13.

Republicans say these give Nixon the opportunity to solidify a formidable base with the farm areas of Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Iowa, Illinois and Indiana.

Paradoxically, Republican prospects appear to have gained in the farm belt which the Democrats thought a month ago would be theirs. At the same time GOP strength may have waned in the South and border areas where their opponents were singing the blues in September.

Democratic strategists attribute what they claim is a shift in Southern attitude in part of the talk by Henry Cabot Lodge, the GOP vice-presidential nominee, about the probability that there would be a Negro in a Nixon Cabinet.

Nixon has repeatedly discounted that talk, saying he would name the best men or women regardless of race. He said he has made no commitments.

The Democratic party workers had regarded civil rights as a moribund issue, with the positions of the presidential candidates equally distasteful to the majority of Dixie voters. But they don't think the average Southern voter is ready for a Negro in the Cabinet.

State Gambling Reports Assured

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has assured Safety Director Andrew Soltis of Steubenville that he will get prompt reports on gambling spots observed by state liquor agents.

Soltis, meeting Tuesday with DiSalle, Liquor Director Richard C. Crouch and his enforcement chief, Ivan W. Smith, complained that the Steubenville Herald-Star received gambling reports before he learned about them.

DiSalle said the reports are sent regularly to the mayor, police chief and prosecutor in Steubenville and that the safety director would be placed on the mailing list.

Papers in Midwest See GOP Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—First results of a survey by Publishers Auxiliary today showed that the majority of daily and weekly newspapers in eight Midwest states think their communities will vote the Republican ticket in the presidential election.

The results are based on 1,120 ballots returned from 3,400 mailed to newspapers in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin by the trade magazine.

The survey showed that Missouri is the only state in which newspapers indicated their communities will give preference to the Democrats.

Pat Boone Explains Move Into California, Out of TV

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The president of Cooga Mooga, Inc., sat in the penthouse offices with his white buckskins under the long, polished desk.

He told of a prophecy.

"This fellow made out a horoscope at the first of the year and sent it to me. He said that it would be a good year for me, although I would be ending one phase of my career and starting another and that I would be having some spare time. Of course, I don't put any stock in such things, but my golly if it didn't come true.

Pat Boone was talking about the abrupt changes in his life and career. He has moved his wife and four daughters to California and wonders why he didn't do it sooner. He has dropped off a weekly TV show to pursue other phases of his multifaceted career, especially movies.

What happened to TV? He explained the series of events: ABC wanted him to do an hour-long Saturday night show, a la Perry Como. But the Boone sponsor didn't want to go a full hour. The efforts were made to find a co-sponsor, the time was halfed by a firm offer for "Leave it to Beaver. Meanwhile, Pat decided to drop off weekly TV.

"I had been on every week for three years, he said. "I had movies that (knock wood) did very well. I had records and I had a book that sold 400,000 in hard cover. I don't know of any performer who had so much exposure.

"I figured I was pushing my luck to continue on TV every week. People would get sick of seeing me.

"So I decided to spend more time with records, to make personal appearances that I had been unable to do, and do two pictures a year instead of one.

Paddle Boat Trip Ends in Tragedy

CUXHAVEN, Germany (AP)—A 31-year-old cement worker, August Berendes, and a woman companion set out from Hamburg last weekend in a folding boat to paddle to Israel.

The boat was heavily loaded with food and camping equipment. The couple planned to travel by rivers and canals to the Mediterranean, then along the coast to Israel. After a years stay there, Berendes planned to go to Australia.

Tuesday night the boat capsized in the icy waters of the lower Elbe River. Berendes drowned. The crew of a passing ship rescued the woman.

Pat Boone Explains Move Into California, Out of TV

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The president of Cooga Mooga, Inc., sat in the penthouse offices with his white buckskins under the long, polished desk.

He told of a prophecy. "This fellow made out a horoscope at the first of the year and sent it to me. He said that it would be a good year for me, although I would be ending one phase of my career and starting another and that I would be having some spare time. Of course, I don't put any stock in such things, but my golly if it didn't come true.

Pat Boone was talking about the abrupt changes in his life and career. He has moved his wife and four daughters to California and wonders why he didn't do it sooner. He has dropped off a weekly TV show to pursue other phases of his multifaceted career, especially movies.

What happened to TV? He explained the series of events: ABC wanted him to do an hour-long Saturday night show, a la Perry Como. But the Boone sponsor didn't want to go a full hour. The efforts were made to find a co-sponsor, the time was halfed by a firm offer for "Leave it to Beaver. Meanwhile, Pat decided to drop off weekly TV.

"I had been on every week for three years, he said. "I had movies that (knock wood) did very well. I had records and I had a book that sold 400,000 in hard cover. I don't know of any performer who had so much exposure.

"I figured I was pushing my luck to continue on TV every week. People would get sick of seeing me.

"So I decided to spend more time with records, to make personal appearances that I had been unable to do, and do two pictures a year instead of one.

Paddle Boat Trip Ends in Tragedy

CUXHAVEN, Germany (AP)—A 31-year-old cement worker, August Berendes, and a woman companion set out from Hamburg last weekend in a folding boat to paddle to Israel.

The boat was heavily loaded with food and camping equipment. The couple planned to travel by rivers and canals to the Mediterranean, then along the coast to Israel. After a years stay there, Berendes planned to go to Australia.

Tuesday night the boat capsized in the icy waters of the lower Elbe River. Berendes drowned. The crew of a passing ship rescued the woman.

Quarterbacks Steal Spotlight In Midwest

Glamour Halfbacks
Take Backseat with
New Option Plays

CHICAGO (AP)—Has the quarter-back option play stolen the football spotlight from the game's one-time glamour boy, the halfback?

As far as the Midwest is concerned, it apparently has. The area's top candidates for All-America, today's check of The Associated Press regional selection board disclosed, are mainly quarterbacks.

The list is headed by Iowa's Wilburn Hollis, AP back of the week. Other quarterbacks prancing in the eye-catching role once held by fleet halfbacks include Purdue's Bernie Allen, Wisconsin's Ron Miller, Ohio State's Tom Matte, Minnesota's Sandy Stephens and Northwestern's Dick Thornton.

In the various versions of the T-formation the quarterback is the offensive kingpin. This was dramatically underscored at Iowa City Saturday when Iowa, now the No. 1 team in The Associated Press national poll, was led by Hollis to a last-minute 28-21 triumph over Wisconsin.

Observed All-America board member Oliver Kuehne of the Milwaukee Journal:

"One man above all others stood out in Iowa's victory over Wisconsin—200 pound, 6-2 quarterback Wilburn Hollis. It was he who scored two of Iowa's touchdowns on runs of 31 and 9 yards; he who passed 34 yards for the winning touchdown; and he who led all ball carriers with 77 yards on 19 carries. With only an average quarterback, Iowa for all its fine speed would have been whipped.

In the same game, Wisconsin's Miller almost engineered a 21-21 tie and board member Bill Jauss of the Chicago Daily News commented that "Miller throws well enough for the pros right now.

At Purdue last Saturday, quarterback Allen, an East Liverpool, Ohio, product, was mainly instrumental in the Boilermakers' 24-21 upset of Ohio State. Commented board member Paul Horning of the Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch:

"Allen did everything but drive the bus to the stadium. He did an excellent job of quarterbacking; all the passing and punting; kicked three extra points and the 33-yard field goal which was the margin of victory. He also ran effectively in the fourth period when Purdue's successful ball control kept Ohio State from striking back.

The quarterbacks, however, haven't swiped the thunder from linemen—especially tackle Jerry Beabout of Purdue and guard Tom Brown of Minnesota.

Bill Fox of the Indianapolis News said the 222-pound Beabout, from Mansfield, Ohio distinguished himself against Ohio State "both on offense and defense. Board member Horning said films showed Beabout "consistently led the charge which neutralized Ohio's 1-2 punch of fullback Bob Ferguson and quarterback Tom Matte.

Bert Bertine of the Champaign-Urbana (Ill.) Courier extolled Minnesota's 243-pound Brown as a "whale of a middle guard who rolls over offensive centers.

OHSSA Reverses Football Ruling

CINCINNATI (AP)—Star tackle Steve Pruitt will be back in the lineup for Taylor High School Friday night following the Ohio High School Athletic Association's reversal of its earlier ruling declaring him ineligible.

The OHSSA had held that Pruitt, and orphan who lived in the Taylor school district with a sister, should have moved into the Harrison school district with his sister and played there.

The association announced its change of mind Wednesday, saying the new decision was based on Pruitts being made a ward of the Hamilton County Juvenile Court.

The court had claimed Pruitt could play at Taylor, but the athlete remained on the bench at his own request so far this season for fear the OHSSA would forfeit any game in which he played.

Tigers Braced For Battle with Strong McClain

Circleville's football Tigers will face a big and mobile Greenfield eleven Friday on the McClain gridiron.

The McClain clan has several returning lettermen from the SCO championship team which went undefeated last year. However, gone is Quarterback Dick Craft and several other outstanding gridgers.

After getting off to a slow start with one win sandwiched between three losses, the Greenfield squad has come on strong to record victories over SCO opponents Pleasant View and Wilmington.

The defending champs own three wins and three losses for the year, the same record held by Circleville.

Junior High Tilt Is Postponed

Circleville's Junior High football game at Lancaster Thomas Ewing was postponed yesterday due to rain.

Junior High Principal J. L. Chilcote said the game will be played Tuesday at Ewing. Kickoff is set for 4 p. m.

The Tiny Tigers are also scheduled for a game here Thursday with Frankfort.

2 Ex-Champions In Senior Test

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—The quarterfinals of the North and South Seniors Golf Tournament are being played today with two former champions still in the running.

Thomas Robbins of Pinehurst, 1956 champion, won his second match Wednesday, ousting Loyal Safford of Randolph, Mass. 3 and 2. J. Wolcott Brown of Sea Girt, N. J., who won two years ago, whipped Allen Rankin of Columbus, Ohio, 2 and 1.

Meanwhile, both co-medalists in Mondays qualifying are on the sidelines. Last to go was James Kirkpatrick of Manchester, Conn., whose late rally Wednesday was choked on the 18th hole by L.W. Ramsey, 56, of New Castle, Ind., for a 2-up victory.

International Trot Booked for Tonight

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Hairois of Holland and Jamin of France get another chance tonight to turn the tables on Su Mac Lad of the United States in the $50,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers Raceway.

Both Hairois and Jamin broke stride last week as Su Mac Lad won the first of the International Trotting Series.

Others in the field for the mile and one-quarter race are Tie Silk of Canada and Great Lullwater, Steamin Demon, Senator Frost and Silver Song of the United States.

Miserable 11s Slated on TV

Northwestern, Irish
Win But One Each

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A great many television viewers will watch Notre Dame and Northwestern play football this Saturday, not to mention the 55,000 who will fill the Wildcats' Dyche Stadium, and wonder why these two clubs are having their miseries.

Each has won only once in four outings, Notre Dame 21-7 over California in the season opener and Northwestern battered down Oklahoma 19-3. The Irish then were swamped 51-19 by Purdue, upset 12-7 by North Carolina and shutout 21-0 last week by Michigan State. Northwestern fell 42-0 to Iowa, 7-0 to Minnesota and 14-7 to Michigan.

Both coaches knew the good and bad of the situation before the beginning of the season, and it centered on one thing, injuries.

Notre Dame had a rash of knee operations during the off season and each was a question mark. Northwestern Coach Ara Parseghian feared for the health of his team.

"Though we have more depth this season, we'll have to stay healthy to be a winner," he said.

That hasn't happened. Quarterback Dick Thornton, the offensive spark of the team, tore a thigh muscle in the Oklahoma game. The Wildcats' big end, El Kimbrough, was hampered by injuries in the Minnesota game then another end, Paul Yanke missed last week's game against Michigan, and will not play Saturday. Neither will halfback Ray Purdin fastest man in the backfield, or tackle Jack Cvercko.

Notre Dame's weak knees, and an even bigger weakness at quarterback, foretold possible doom for the Irish. The Ramblers already have lost their best halfback, Red Mack, and end John Powers for the year from injuries after the second game. Guard Myron Pottios has seen limited service because of his knee injury.

Donna Leist High In Tuesday Loop

Donna Leist rolled a 218 and 600 series to gain high individual single scores in Women's Tuesday Night bowling at Circle D.

Other high single games included Mary O'Donnell's 211 and a 208 each by Mary Noble and B. Dean. Additional high series scores were Beverly Williams and Marvene Edgington with a 586 each and Mrs. O'Donnell's 561.

Benny's Restaurant had high single game on a 933 and Ward's Market was close behind with a 906.

Top team series scores were recorded by Ward's with a 2,678, Benny's with a 2,621 and Gracille's Carousol of Beauty with a 2,571.

Royals Are Sharp In Cage Opener

CINCINNATI (AP) — Coach Charley Wolf sums up the "new look" Cincinnati Royals' record victory this way:

"Rebounding did it."

He referred specifically to the first half of the Wednesday night's National Basketball Association season opener, when the Royals grabbed 47 rebounds to 25 for the Los Angeles Lakers, and raced to a 140-123 victory.

Three-time All-America Oscar Robertson lived up to expectations in his pro basketball debut, scoring 21 points. He also was largely responsible for the Royals' improved rebounding. He grabbed 12 from his guard position, leading everybody but the Lakers' Elgin Baylor with 17, and contributed 10 assists.

The Lakers' Jerry West snapped back after a poor first-half showing and netted 16 points in the second half for a 20-point total in his pro debut. He was All-America at West Virginia.

The Royals are looking forward to a better season than their last two, when they finished last.

"Rebounding is all we need," Wolf said. "If we can get the ball we can score. They know what to do with the ball."

"They" meant players like captain Jack Twyman, last year's second-highest NBA scorer, who Wednesday night paced his team with 30 points, hitting 11 of 18 field goal attempts.

And Robertson, who delighted the record crowd of 8,176 fans at the Cincinnati Garden.

Highest previous crowd the Royals had drawn there was 7,853 against St. Louis, Dec. 30, 1958.

Royals rookie Bob Boozer, who was teamed with Robertson and West on the U. S. Olympic squad last summer, notched eight points.

The Royals' 140 points were two higher than they had ever scored.

It was the pro debut also of coaches Wolf, who was at Villa Madonna College last year, and

Spahn Leads All-Star Balloting

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves a 20-game winner for the 11th time, topped the balloting for the 1960 Associated Press major league all-star team selected today. Of the 192 baseball writers taking part in the annual poll, 188 named Spahn as the best left-handed pitcher.

The Braves dominated the voting with third baseman Eddie Mathews, outfielder Hank Aaron and catcher Del Crandall also named to the squad.

Others chosen were first baseman Bill Skowron and outfielder Roger Maris of the New York Yankees, second baseman Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, outfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and right-handed pitcher Vernon Law of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The balloting for second base honors produced the closest vote. Runnels polled 68 votes, Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox 60 and Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates 56. Another tight race was for first baseman with Skowron edging Roy Sievers of the White Sox, 65 to 53.

Mays was the second highest vote-getter with 182. Law was next with 144 and then came Maris with 132.

The money-winning record for a professional golfer is held by Ted Kroll, who won $72,835 in 1956.

Quarterbacks Steal Spotlight In Midwest

Glamour Halfbacks Take Backseat with New Option Plays

CHICAGO (AP)—Has the quarterback option play stolen the football spotlight from the game's one-time glamour boy, the halfback?

As far as the Midwest is concerned, it apparently has. The area's top candidates for All-America, today's check of The Associated Press regional selection board disclosed, are mainly quarterbacks.

The list is headed by Iowa's Wilburn Hollis, AP back of the week. Other quarterbacks prancing in the eye-catching role once held by fleet halfbacks include Purdue's Bernie Allen, Wisconsin's Ron Miller, Ohio State's Tom Matte, Minnesota's Sandy Stephens and Northwestern's Dick Thornton.

In the various versions of the T-formation the quarterback is the offensive kingpin. This was dramatically underscored at Iowa City Saturday when Iowa, now the No. 1 team in The Associated Press national poll, was led by Hollis to a last-minute 28-21 triumph over Wisconsin.

Observed All-America board member Oliver Kuehne of the Milwaukee Journal:

"One man above all others stood out in Iowa's victory over Wisconsin—200 pound, 6-2 quarterback Wilburn Hollis. It was he who scored two of Iowa's touchdowns on runs of 31 and 9 yards; he who passed 34 yards for the winning touchdown; and he who led all ball carriers with 77 yards on 19 carries. With only an average quarterback, Iowa for all its fine speed would have been whipped.

In the same game, Wisconsin's Miller almost engineered a 21-21 tie and board member Bill Jauss of the Chicago Daily News commented that "Miller throws well enough for the pros right now.

At Purdue last Saturday, quarterback Allen, an East Liverpool, Ohio, product, was mainly instrumental in the Boilermakers' 24-21 upset of Ohio State. Commented board member Paul Horning of the Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch:

"Allen did everything but drive the bus to the stadium. He also ran effectively in the fourth period when Purdue's successful ball control kept Ohio State from striking back.

The quarterbacks, however, haven't swiped the thunder from linemen—especially tackle Jerry Beabout of Purdue and guard Tom Brown of Minnesota.

Bill Fox of the Indianapolis News said the 222-pound Beabout, from Mansfield, Ohio distinguished himself against Ohio State "both on offense and defense. Board member Horning said films showed Beabout "consistently led the charge which neutralized Ohio's 1-2 punch of fullback Bob Ferguson and quarterback Tom Matte.

Bert Bertine of the Champaign-Urbana (Ill.) Courier extolled Minnesota's 243-pound Brown as a "whale of a middle guard who rolls over offensive centers.

OHSSA Reverses Football Ruling

The OHSSA had held that Pruitt, and orphan who lived in the Taylor school district with a sister, should have moved into the Harrison school district with his sister and played there.

The association announced its change of mind Wednesday, saying the new decision was based on Pruitt's being made a ward of the Hamilton County Juvenile Court.

The court had claimed Pruitt could play at Taylor, but the athlete remained on the bench at his own request so far this season for fear the OHSSA would forfeit any game in which he played.

International Trot Booked for Tonight

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Hairois of Holland and Jamin of France get another chance tonight to turn the tables on Su Mac Lad of the United States in the $50,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers Raceway. Both Hairois and Jamin broke stride last week as Su Mac Lad won the first of the International Trotting Series.

Others in the field for the mile and one-quarter race are Tie Silk of Canada and Great Lullwater, Steam Demon, Senator Frost and Silver Song of the United States.

Miserable 11s Slated on TV

Northwestern, Irish Win But One Each

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A great many television viewers will watch Notre Dame and Northwestern play football this Saturday, not to mention the 55,000 who will fill the Wildcat's Dyche Stadium, and wonder why these two clubs are having their miseries.

Each has won only once in four outings, Notre Dame 21-7 over California in the season opener and Northwestern battered down Oklahoma 19-3. The Irish then were swamped 51-19 by Purdue, upset 12-7 by North Carolina and shutout 21-0 last week by Michigan State. Northwestern fell 42-0 to Iowa, 7-0 to Minnesota and 14-7 to Michigan.

Both coaches knew the good and bad of the situation before the beginning of the season, and it centered on one thing, injuries.

Notre Dame had a rash of knee operations during the off season and each was a question mark. Northwestern Coach Ara Parseghian feared for the health of his team.

"Though we have more depth this season, we'll have to stay healthy to be a winner," he said.

That hasn't happened. Quarterback Dick Thornton, the offensive spark of the team, tore a thigh muscle in the Oklahoma game. The Wildcats' big end, El Kimbrough, was hampered by injuries in the Minnesota game then another end, Paul Yanke missed last week's game against Michigan, and will not play Saturday. Neither will halfback Ray Purdin fastest man in the backfield, or tackle Jack Cvercko.

Notre Dame's weak knees, and an even bigger weakness at quarterback, foretold possible doom for the Irish. The Ramblers already have lost their best halfback, Red Mack, and end John Powers for the year from injuries after the second game. Guard Myron Pottios has seen limited service because of his knee injury.

Donna Leist High In Tuesday Loop

Donna Leist rolled a 218 and 600 series to gain high individual scores in Women's Tuesday Night bowling at Circle D.

Other high single games included Mary O'Donnell's 211 and a 208 each by Mary Noble and B. Dean. Additional high series scores were Beverly Williams and Marvene Edginton with a 586 each and Mrs. O'Donnell's 561.

Benny's Restaurant had high single game on a 933 and Ward's Market was close behind with a 906.

Top team series scores were recorded by Ward's with a 2,678, Benny's with a 2,621 and Gracille's Carousel of Beauty with a 2,571.

Boston, Frisco Picked For '61 All-Star Games

NEW YORK (AP)—Boston will be the site of the second 1961 All-Star major league baseball game, Commissioner Ford Frick said today. He said the contest would be played Monday, July 31.

Previously, the commissioner had announced San Francisco as the site of the first All-Star game of the season with the date July 11. Two such games have been played in each of the last two years with receipts helping pay for the players' pensions.

Royals Are Sharp In Cage Opener

CINCINNATI (AP) — Coach Charley Wolf sums up the "new look" Cincinnati Royals' record victory this way:

"Rebounding did it."
He referred specifically to the first half of the Wednesday night's National Basketball Association season opener, when the Royals grabbed 47 rebounds to 25 for the Los Angeles Lakers, and raced to a 140-123 victory.

Three-time All-America Oscar Robertson lived up to expectations in his pro basketball debut, scoring 21 points. He also was largely responsible for the Royals' improved rebounding. He grabbed 12 from his guard position, leading everybody but the Lakers' Elgin Baylor with 17, and contributed 10 assists.

The Lakers' Jerry West snapped back after a poor first-half showing and netted 16 points in the second half for a 20-point total in his pro debut. He was All-America at West Virginia.

The Royals are looking forward to a better season than their last two, when they finished last.

"Rebounding is all we need," Wolf said. "If we can get the ball we can score. They know what to do with the ball."

"They" meant players like captain Jack Twyman, last year's second-highest NBA scorer, who Wednesday night paced his team with 30 points, hitting 11 of 18 field goal attempts.

And Robertson, who delighted the record crowd of 8,176 fans at the Cincinnati Garden.

Highest previous crowd the Royals had drawn there was 7,853 against St. Louis, Dec. 30, 1958.

Royals rookie Bob Boozer, who was teamed with Robertson and West on the U. S. Olympic squad last summer, notched eight points.

The Royals' 140 points were two higher than they had ever scored. It was the pro debut also of coaches Wolf, who was at Villa Madonna College last year, and of the Lakers' Fred Schaus. The Royals move today to New York for games tonight and Saturday with the Knickerbockers.

And their fans are looking forward to a better season than their last two, when they finished dead last.

Captain Twyman says, "This is our year. It has to be. We've waited a long time for it. And this was certainly an opening game to be proud of."

Injuries Pop Up To Mar OSU Prep

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Worrisome injuries popped up to mar Wednesday's Ohio State football practice.

Guard Don Young reinjured a tender ankle and Ron Houck, defensive back, suffered a hurt neck muscle. Effect of Young's injury is questionable but Houck's is not expected to keep him from playing against Wisconsin Saturday.

Bill Hess is the probable replacement for Bill German, another defensive back, who is still limping from a knee injury suffered last week in the game with Purdue.

Coach Woody Hayes, did find bright spots in the days work. He commented that quarterback Tom Matte and fullback Bob Ferguson, his big 1-2 punch, were running as well as they ever have.

Washington C.H. Pacer Cops Finale at Scioto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Harrys Dream, owned by McKinley Kirk of Washington Court House and the Valley Brothers of Waverly, won the featured $2,500 invitational pace on the final night of the 1960 season at Scioto Downs harness track.

Driven by Wendell Kirk, the 5-year-old chestnut mare had little trouble Wednesday night breezing to a two-length victory over Navy Bard in 2:06 2-5. Harrys Dream paid $4.40.

Spahn Leads All-Star Balloting

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves a 20-game winner for the 11th time, topped the balloting for the 1960 Associated Press major league all-star team selected today. Of the 192 baseball writers taking part in the annual poll, 188 named Spahn as the best left-handed pitcher.

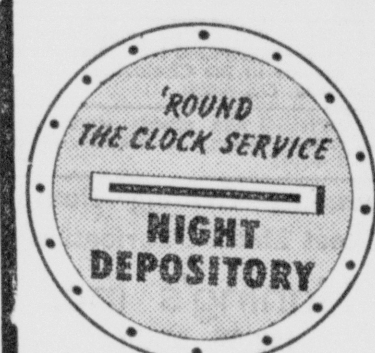

The Braves dominated the voting with third baseman Eddie Mathews, outfielder Hank Aaron and catcher Del Crandall also named to the squad.

Others chosen were first baseman Bill Skowron and outfielder Roger Maris of the New York Yankees, second baseman Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, outfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and right-handed pitcher Vernon Law of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The balloting for second base honors produced the closest vote. Runnels polled 68 votes, Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox 60 and Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates 56. Another tight race was for first baseman with Skowron edging Roy Sievers of the White Sox, 65 to 53.

Mays was the second highest vote-getter with 182. Law was next with 144 and then came Maris with 132.

The money-winning record for a professional golfer is held by Ted Kroll, who won $72,835 in 1956.

EX-PREMIER ON TRIAL—Adnan Menderes, former premier of Turkey, stands in prisoner's dock in Yassada, where he and some 400 other deposed leaders of his regime are accused of constitutional violations.

Joe Louis, Schmeling Meet, But This Time as Friends

The hands joined behind Schmeling's back, and Louis, the former heavyweight champion who once fought Schmeling with hate in his heart, said, "Great to see you, Joe. You haven't put on any weight."

Schmeling, too, embraced Louis and said, "Nice to see you, too, Joe. You are looking great."

The applause of the crowd in a hotel ballroom drowned out these comments spoken by Louis in a soft whisper and by Schmeling whose English is laced with the thick accent on his native German.

This is how they met Wednesday night, only a few miles from Yankee Stadium where Louis was kayoed by a scowling Schmeling on June 23, 1936, then came back mercilessly to knock out Schmeling—the hero of Hitler's prewar Germany—in 2 minutes, 4 seconds of the first round on June 22, 1938.

That was another night, though. That time it took a bitter challenge by Louis to bring Schmeling across the seas for a rematch. This time Schmeling, who holds the Hamburg franchise of an American soft drink company, came on his own.

He came to be with Louis along with Jimmy Braddock, the man Louis dethroned as heavyweight champ in 1937; along with Ezzard Charles, the ex-heavyweight champ who whipped an aging Louis who had once been his hero; along with Sugar Ray Robinson, the ex-welter and middleweight champ who knew Joe as a boy in Detroit; along with Louis' family, friends and other boxing associates.

The occasion was the annual dinner of the People-to-People Sports Committee Inc., a group dedicated to fostering international good will through athletics. As part of the festivities, Louis and 17 other athletes were honored for their service to sports.

The Louis-Schmeling meeting occurred on the TV show which will be seen nationally next Sunday, (NBC, 9:30 p.m., EST).

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nippier weather in many sections of the country inspired supermarkets and neighborhood stores to offer sturdy fare as specials for this weekend.

Beef roasts and steaks of varied cut top the list. Housewives apparently will have plenty of beef to choose from the rest of this year. The Department of Agriculture said farmers plan to market 59 per cent of the 5,075,000 head of cattle now on feed for the quality slaughter market. A year ago they marketed 56 per cent of the 5,001,000 head on feed.

Chickens are being pushed again this week as special offerings. But prices are generally up from two to seven cents a pound from last week.

Smoked hams and various cuts of lamb are getting the feature treatment in Eastern chain stores.

Egg prices finally took a dive after reaching their highs of the year. In the New York metropolitan area, the price of large whites dropped eight cents a dozen to 67 cents. Elsewhere declines ranged from one to 13 cents a dozen.

Canned peas and corn are going to cost more this winter because supplies are in closer balance with demand.

Orange juice prices are staying low despite hurricane damage to the Florida crop. Best vegetable buys are cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, medium size onions, potatoes, spinach, nemagold and orange Jersey sweet potatoes, parsnips, pumpkins and nearby peppers.

Good buys are large artichokes, broccoli rabe carrots, celery, nearby lettuce, mushrooms, parsley, California peppers, large Western onions, green squash and Puerto Rico sweet potatoes.

In the expensive category are beans, cucumbers, green peas and Western russet potatoes. Among fruits the best bargains are Cortland McIntosh apples, bananas and Tokay grapes.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be well, let say injudicious—for a company that manufactures steel to sponsor a television program dedicated to satirizing the American automobile industry which uses a lot of steel and also has some brand new models out. So "Step on the Gas," Wednesday night's CBS Steel Hour special, didn't.

What it did was poke fun at very old cars, automobile horns, credit cards carried by motorists, and—of course—women drivers. There were also some dances and some songs relating to automobiles one way or another. Jackie Cooper, Shirley Jones, Hans Conried, Shari Lewis and Pat Carroll did their best with the rather bland material.

At the beginning of Wednesday night's Perry Como Show, guest star Jack Paar announced that some people had suggested that Paar was okay on late evening television but that "he'd die too bad he had to take the whole Como show along with him."

Just about the only way the performers in NBC's Hour of Great Mysteries series seem to be able to play their parts in the musty adaptations is tongue-in-cheek. A little of this goes a long way, and surely there must be some way to shine up these period pieces so that they all won't seem to be burlesques.

Tuesday night's "Inn of the Flying Dragon" was no better than the rest of the series—at best disappointing.

This week's "Alfred Hitchcock Presents" was one of the most delightful half hours encountered on television in months, and a real off-beat treatment for that usually mischievous show. It was a delicately told story about a little boy and his love for his father—with a real snapper of an ending which both was surprising and brought a quick tear to the eye.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., suggests that Vice President Richard M. Nixon own dealings with Soviet Premier Khrushchev leave Nixon in poor position to criticize Sen. John F. Kennedy in relation to the U2 plane flight.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, advanced the idea by broad implication in a letter contending that Nixon himself cut a patter for expression of regrets to the Soviet premier in international disputes.

The senator raised the subject in a renewal of his request to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter for release of the full record of exchanges between Nixon and Khrushchev during the vice president's 1959 visit to Moscow.

The U2 flight got into the presidential campaign when Kennedy, the Democratic candidate, suggested regrets over the incident might have been expressed if that would have saved last Mays summit conference. Kennedy also contended the timing of the flight, just in advance of the summit session, was bad.

Fulbright wrote that he has been informed Nixon himself expressed regret to Khrushchev over the timing of a "captive nation" resolution passed by Congress shortly before Nixon's Moscow trip.

ROYALTY REIGNS — Aboard a Pumpkin Show float are the three lucky talented and terrific girls named to rule over the 1960 Pumpkin Show. They are, from left, Peggy Clark, Miss Pumpkin Show; Pamela Mowery, Miss Monroe, and June Amann, Miss Circleville. Pamela and June are attendants to Peggy and will ride the float for the five remaining Pumpkin Show parades.

Pickaway Grange Report

A carry-in dinner preceded the meeting of the Scioto Valley Grange October 13.

The installation of officers for the new year followed with Mrs. H. O. Caldwell as installing officer; H. O. Caldwell, installing master; Stella Peters, chaplain; Dorothy Swingle, marshal; Virginia Fausnaugh, regalia bearer; Clara Creager, emblem bearer; Leona Berger, pianist and Louise Fisher, soloist.

There was a short business meeting in which the re-elected worthy master H. A. Bumgarner appointed the following committees:

Legislative Agent, H. O. Caldwell; Juvenile Matrons, Mrs. Lawrence Hoover and Mrs. Leroy Herron; Youth, Hal Richards, Helen Hoover and Charles Frank; Community Service, Harry Speakman, Roy Krieger and Ralph Fisher;

Memorial, Mabel Fisher, Agnes Riegel and Mary Krieger; Home Economics, Leona Berger, Louise Fisher and Mae Payne; Remembrance, Stella Peters and Dorothy Swingle; Calendar, Gladys Vause, Dorothy Duval and Lula Kuhnwein, Publicity, Cleona Dunnick.

OUR ANNUAL cafeteria supper will be held at the Grange Hall October 27. Serving begins at 5 o'clock.

A donation was granted for the Sesquicentennial Pageant at the Fairgrounds Coliseum November 1 and 2. The first and second degree will be given on Tuesday October 25. Refreshments of pumpkin pie or doughnuts are being asked from each family.

Meeting begins at 8 p. m.

Library Closes Early

The Pickaway County Library will close at 5 p. m. during Pumpkin Show. A regular schedule will resume Monday.

Americans drank more than twice the amount of liquor per capita 100 years ago than they do now, a survey by a liquor industry committee shows. The average in 1860 was 2.86 gallons per person per year. Gulp!

Actor Declares Love For Lauren Bacall

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Jason Robards Jr., declared his love for Lauren Bacall today and said they would be married.

"I love Betty (Miss Bacall). And as soon as this is over we'll get married," Robards told reporters. He referred to a divorce suit in which his wife Rachel Taylor Robards, charges he committed adultery with Miss Bacall. Robards denied the accusation.

Theatre Group Opens New Play Early November

The recently organized community theatre, Pickaway Players, have scheduled two performances of their first production, "The Solid Gold Cadillac," for November 12, and November 17.

The Pickaway Players was recently organized under the direction of Miss Mary Jo Gaskalla and William Drum, both Pickaway County school teachers.

The organization is sponsored by the Walnut Band Boosters and the Logan Elm Dramatics Club. Pickaway Players membership is open to anyone in the County who has a keen interest in the "living theatre."

Tickets are now on sale at the Logan Elm Booster Club Booth, located on West Main St., and the Hedges Chapel Booth, located on E. Main St., in front of GOP headquarters.

Tops Campaign Goal

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The 1960 combined Montgomery County-Greene County Community Chest-Red Cross drive collected $3,023,571, topping its goal by $110, it was announced Wednesday night. This was $252,646 more than last year's total.

ROYALTY REIGNS — Aboard a Pumpkin Show float are the three lucky talented and terrific girls named to rule over the 1960 Pumpkin Show. They are, from left, Peggy Clark, Miss Pumpkin Show; Pamela Mowery, Miss Monroe, and June Amann, Miss Circleville. Pamela and June are attendants to Peggy and will ride the float for the five remaining Pumpkin Show parades.

PUMPKIN QUEEN — Miss Peggy Clark is shown with the symbol of the Circleville Pumpkin Show — a bevy of pumpkins. Last night Peggy was chosen Miss Pumpkin Show over a field of 12 other local high school girls.

Pickaway Grange Report

A carry-in dinner preceded the meeting of the Scioto Valley Grange October 13.

The installation of officers for the new year followed with Mrs. H. O. Caldwell as installing officer; H. O. Caldwell, installing master; Stella Peters, chaplain; Dorothy Swingle, marshal; Virginia Fausnaugh, regalia bearer; Clara Creager, emblem bearer; Leona Berger, Pianist and Louise Fisher, soloist.

There was a short business meeting in which the re-elected worthy master H. A. Bumgarner appointed the following committees:

Legislative Agent, H. O. Caldwell; Juvenile Matrons, Mrs. Lawrence Hoover and Mrs. Leroy Herron; Youth, Hal Richards, Helen Hoover and Charles Frank; Community Service, Harry Speakman, Roy Krieger and Ralph Fisher;

Memorial, Mabel Fisher, Agnes Riegel and Mary Krieger; Home Economics, Leona Berger, Louise Fisher and Mae Payne; Remembrance, Stella Peters and Dorothy Swingle; Calendar, Gladys Vause, Dorothy Duvall and Lula Kuhnwein, Publicity, Cleona Dunnick.

OUR ANNUAL cafeteria supper will be held at the Grange Hall October 27. Serving begins at 5 o'clock.

A donation was granted for the Sequicentennial Pageant at the Fairgrounds Coliseum November 1 and 2. The first and second degree will be given on Tuesday October 25. Refreshments of pumpkin pie or doughnuts are being asked from each family.

Meeting begins at 8 p. m.

Library Closes Early

The Pickaway County Library will close at 5 p. m. during Pumpkin Show. A regular schedule will resume Monday.

Americans drank more than twice the amount of liquor per capita 100 years ago than they do now, a survey by a liquor industry committee shows. The average in 1860 was 2.86 gallons per person per year. Gulp!

Actor Declares Love For Lauren Bacall

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Jason Robards Jr., declared his love for Lauren Bacall today and said they would be married.

"I love Betty (Miss Bacall). And as soon as this is over we'll get married," Robards told reporters. He referred to a divorce suit in which his wife, Rachel Taylor Robards, charges he committed adultery with Miss Bacall. Robards denied the accusation.
